Country/Region Chosen:

POWERING CITIZENS

WORKING GROUP WORKSHEET

1. IDENTIFYING THE PLACE

- What is the name of the chosen place (city, town, rural area, etc.)?
- Why did your group choose this location? (e.g., known energy poverty issues, environmental challenges, etc.)
- Provide a brief description of the region (e.g., population, economy, geography, energy sources used).

2. IDENTIFYING THE PROBLEMS

- What are the main energy-related issues in this place? (e.g., high electricity costs, lack of access to clean energy, outdated infrastructure)
- What are the economic challenges linked to energy poverty? (e.g., low-income communities, unemployment, unaffordable energy prices)
- What are the environmental impacts? (e.g., reliance on fossil fuels, air pollution, deforestation)

3. PROPOSING SOLUTIONS

- What potential short-term solutions could be implemented? (e.g., awareness campaigns, improving energy efficiency in households, subsidies for vulnerable groups)
- What potential long-term solutions could be implemented? (e.g., investment in renewable energy, smart grids, government policies)
- How can young people and communities actively participate in solving energy poverty issues?

4. CONSIDERING RECS

- Could a Renewable Energy Community (REC) be a viable solution in your chosen location? Why or why not?
- What are the opportunities for RECs in your country/region? (e.g., solar cooperatives, community-owned wind farms)
- What challenges would need to be addressed for a REC to succeed in your chosen location? (e.g., regulatory barriers, lack of funding, technical expertise)
